LOCAL EVENTS

The new cable for the court house bell has been installed, and the big clock, after being silent two weeks, struck for the first time at 5 o'clock, Thursday afternoon.

The white bull terrier which stayed at the Marion Family theatre on West Center street, was killed his morning by being run over by a street car in front of the theatre. The animal was a Boston bull and a very valuable dog.

William F. Burr, superintendent of the county infirmary, has received a commendation from Governor Harris, appointing him a delegate to the National Conference of Charities and Corrections to be held in Minneapolis June 9-12. He is now preparing to attend the meeting.

The Garfield Park addition to the city, which was bought and platted by Indianapolis real estate brokers, was placed on the market this afternoon and the sale will continue over Sunday. Caleb M. Lodge of Indianapolis is here looking after starting the sale. The addition consists of several acres immediately east of Garfield park.

After being separated 44 years, Mrs. Mary Kelly and Mrs. Bridget Flaherty, sisters, were reunited at Mrs. Flaherty's home on Park street Thursday. The sisters separated at their home in Ireland when Mrs. Kelly went to America. Mrs. Kelly went to Australia afterward and although the two exchanged photographs some time ago, they had not seen each other since childhood.

Evils Cured by Delay. Seneca: What reason could not avoid has often been cured by delay.

Hanging a "Literary Event." The most notable "literary event" of London was the hanging at Tyburn, on February 29, 1799, of two young Irish poets, Walter Bageant and Terence Conner, "for filling the coils of the reelin," then considered high treason.

Words of Cheer. Mr. William O'Brien, when he was last in prison in Ireland, spent the time in close study of the Bible. The copy he read had been read by the former occupant of his cell. At the end of Jeremiah this prisoner had scribbled: "Cheer up, old boy! Cheer up!"

Too Late for Him. Manuscript of "Scots Wha Hae" has been sold for $17.50. Burns missed lots of fun by not being able to touch the publisher at that rate.—Philadelphia Ledger.
